

INTER-AGENCY NETWORK FOR EDUCATION IN EMERGENCIES (INEE)

“An open, global network working together to ensure all persons access their right to a relevant, safe and quality education.”

- INEE was conceptualized during the Strategy Session on Education in Emergencies held at the 2000 World Education Forum in Dakar. With a commitment to advancing Strategy Five of the Dakar Framework, UNESCO, UNICEF, and UNHCR convened the first Global Consultation on Education in Emergencies (Geneva, November 8 – 10, 2000) with representatives from WFP, UNDP, the World Bank, bilateral donors, and more than 20 non-governmental organizations engaged in education in emergencies programming. INEE was launched during that consultation in order to build upon and consolidate existing partnerships and efforts.

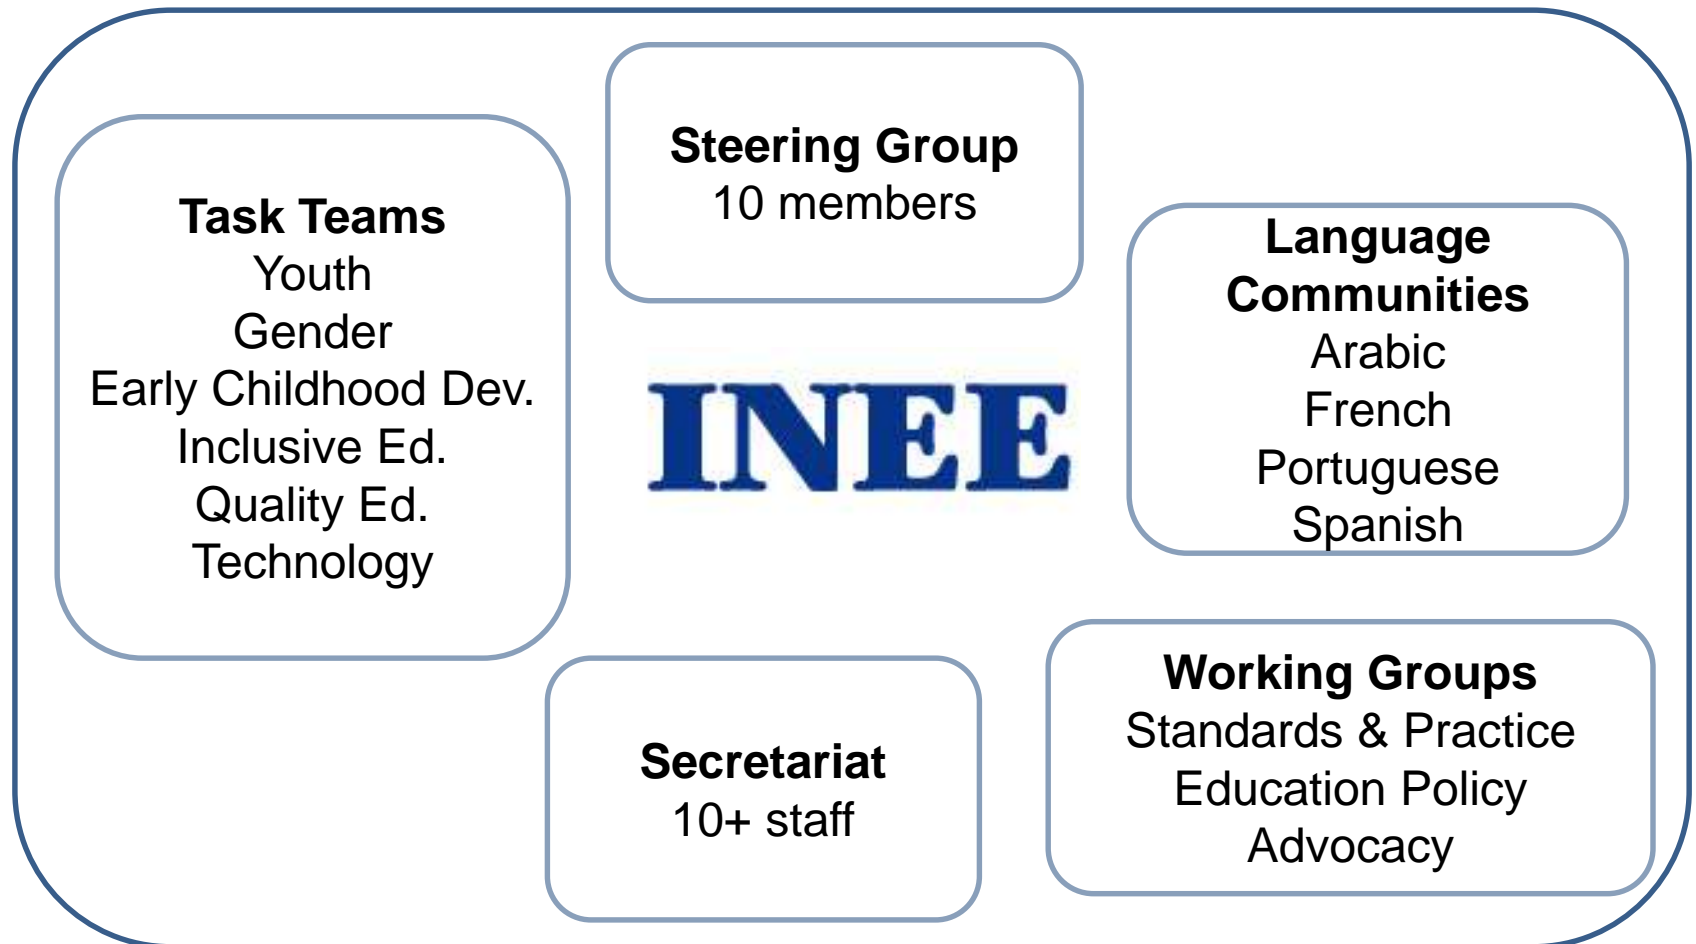

Who are we?

- More than 13,000 of us work and study and teach and respond to the education needs of millions of people facing crisis situations;
- An average of 3 new members every day;
- We are teachers and students and NGO workers and UN staff and donors and ministry officials and consultants, and more;
- We work in offices, refugee camps, universities, and under big mango trees;
- We speak more than 80 listed languages and dialects;
- We live in more than 170 countries.
