

20 MARCH 2017

Novotel Hotel, Dubai International Convention & Exhibition Centre

Conducted by

Workshop Theme: Educating Children in Crises

08:30 – 09:00

Registration

09:00 – 09:15

Workshop Opening - Saeed Hersi, Head of OCHA Gulf Liaison Office

Session I: Overview of Education in Crises and Emergencies

09:15 – 09:50

Overview of education in crises

Scale of crises and emergencies implications on education and retroactive impact on sustainable quality education-Status quo: data and statistics from the field

Speaker:

Ms. Shereen Eldaly, Coordination Officer (Education in Crisis Situations), UNESCO
[15 minute presentation and 30 min interactive discussion]

09:50 – 10:35

Challenges of education in crises

Analysis on challenges of access to schooling, funding, shortage of qualified teachers, destruction of education infrastructure, quality educational programmes and curriculums in complex and protracted emergencies

Speaker:

Ms. Annelies Ollieuz, Education Adviser, Norwegian Refugee Council
[15 minute presentation and 30 min interactive discussion]

10:35 – 10:50

Tea/Coffee Break & Networking

Session II: Impact of Education on Children and their Protection

11:50 – 12:30

Impact of Education on Psychosocial abilities of children

Natural disasters and conflicts affect the psychosocial ability of children. Emergencies expose children to violence, break families and social system, and worsen living conditions that leave both short-term and long-term effect on children. The session aims to provide an opportunity from the technical experts on this subject.

Speaker:

Ms. Charlotte Balfour-Poole, Senior Humanitarian Technical Advisor, Save The Children
[15 minute presentation and 30 min interactive discussion]

10:50 – 11:50

Role of Education in Protecting Children

Education also serves as an important protection tool by preventing effects on recruitment, abduction and gender based violence. The experts in this session will highlight this and share their experiences.

Speaker:

Ms. Emmanuelle Abrioux, Chief of Education, UNICEF Ethiopia
[30 minute presentation and 30 min interactive discussion]

12:30 – 14:00

Lunch & Free Time

Session III: Investing in Education for Social Stability

14:00 – 14:45

Role and engagement of the government, local community, teachers, humanitarian and development organizations in education in emergencies

Speaker:

Ms. Annina Mattsson, Acting Director, Programs, Dubai Cares

Speaker:

Mr. Dean Brooks, Director, Inter-Agency, Network for Education in Emergencies (INEE)

Speaker:

Mr. Justin Van Fleet, Chief of Staff, Office of the UN Special Envoy for Global Education
[15 minute presentation and 30 min interactive discussion]

14:45 – 15:45

Different initiatives supporting education in emergencies This session provides opportunity to showcase different initiatives undertaken by humanitarian actors to provide education to children and youth in

Speaker:

Mr. Sultan Ahmed Al-Aseeri, Financial Analyst at Qatar Fund for Development, QUEST

Speaker:

Mr. Justin Van Fleet, Chief of Staff, Office of the UN Special Envoy for Global Education, Education Cannot Wait

15:45 – 16:00

Wrap Up & Presentation of Certificates